Review of Camp K policies

CAMP K ALCOHOL POLICY & OTHER RULES

K9SNW and NWSDA appreciates the use of the Camp K facilities and will implement an alcohol policy. Disregard of this policy will result in a warning. If you continue to ignore our request, then you will be asked to leave. The use of alcohol needs to be discreet. The drink (wine/beer/liquor) needs to be in a container that could hold any non-alcoholic beverage. There can be no carrying of wine/beer/liquor bottles to and from the campfire or to other trucks. You may not have visible alcohol containers sitting outside your truck. You will be required to take all drink containers home with you. We can never see the cans and bottles littering the ground at any time. Excessive use of alcohol will not be tolerated.

- Profanity: If overheard by a race official, Board member or a substantiated complaint is received, you will be immediately DQ'd and will be required to leave the event.
- No smoking of marijuana
- No loose dogs
- No dogs in cabins or any buildings at Camp K
- Trash can go in dump trailer in RV loop. Small amount of dog poop is acceptable -Not a 40# bagful. Take it home.
- Pick up all dog poop and do not leave in small bags by trails.
- Fill in holes made by digging dogs.
- Quiet hours:10PM-6AM. Please do not disturb the camp with dropping, feeding, walking dogs within this time frame.
- Pay all camp fees at pay station.
- Respect the signage.
- No dogs are allowed to swim in the camp pond.
- Respectful and courteous behavior at all times to Camp Koinonia guests whom you might encounter on trails or in camp.
- Respectful and courteous behavior at all times to individuals whom you might encounter off property. Share the trails. Dog teams DO NOT have the right of way.
